One Of The Best-Known Residents Of Prince George's.

SERVED STATE IN MANY WAYS

He Was One Of The Original Promoters Of The Electric Line Between Laurel And Washington.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

College Park, Md., Aug. 31. — Charles Baltimore Calvert, a leading resident of Prince George's county, died at his beautiful country home, MacAlpine, near this place, early this morning, after a brief illness of Bright's disease, aged 63 years. He had been sick for several months, but his condition was not regarded as critical until several days ago, when he was attacked with a sinking spell. Last night, when it was seen that the end was near, several absent children were summoned by telegraph to his bedside, but did not arrive in time to see their father alive.

Mr. Calvert was born February 5, 1843, at the historic Calvert mansion, in what is now Riverdale Park, and several years ago MacAlpine, the present Calvert home- stead, was built, where Mr. Calvert lived until his death. He was the son of Charles Benedict Calvert and Charlotte Augusta Calvert (nee Norris), both of whom are dead. He was graduated from the Maryland Agricultural College in 1863 and for a number of years was a member of the board of trustees of that institution, frequently serving as chairman of the board. In 1864 he was elected a member of the Maryland Legislature from Prince George's county as a Democrat, and served in the special session of 1866. He was re-elected to the Legislature in 1867. In 1866 he married Miss Eleanor Mackubin, only daughter of Dr. Richard Creagh Mackubin and Hester Ann Mackubin (nee Worthington), of Annapolis.

Mr. Calvert was one of the original promoters of the electric railway operating between Washington and Laurel, and for a number of years was president of the National Hotel Company, of Washington. Besides a widow, he is survived by the following children: Mrs. W. G. Carey, of Schenectady, N. Y.; Mrs. H. W. Lilly, of Fayetteville, N. C.; Mrs. Thomas H. Spence, of College Park; Richard C. M. Calvert, George H. Calvert, Jr., Charles Baltimore Calvert, Rosalie Calvert and Elizabeth Stuart Calvert. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 4.30 o'clock P. M. at St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington, D. C.
